National Tracking Poll #190659
June 21-24, 2019

Crosstabulation Results

Methodology:
This poll was conducted from June 21-24, 2019, among a national sample of 1991 Registered Voters. The interviews were conducted online and the data were weighted to approximate a target sample of Registered Voters based on age, race/ethnicity, gender, educational attainment, and region. Results from the full survey have a margin of error of plus or minus 2 percentage points.

[^88]Table POL18: As you may know, Joe Biden recently discussed his 'civil' working relationship with senators James Eastland of Mississippi and Herman Talmadge of Georgia. Both Eastland and Talmadge are well known for their segregationist beliefs. Biden defended his remarks as an example of how Congress could be divided while still productive and highlighted his own history of working for civil rights. Based on what you know now, does this make you more or less likely to vote for Joe Biden?

[^91]Table POL19: As you may know, Cory Booker called on Biden to apologize for his comments about his working relationship with senators Eastland and Talmadge. Based on the segregationist beliefs of the senators, Booker explained that Biden's working relationship with the senators is not a model that modern lawmakers should follow to bring the country together. Based on what you know now, does this make you more or less likely to vote for Cory Booker?
